APPENDIX A TO § 1010.230 Certification Regarding Beneficial Owners Of Legal Entity Customers

I. GENERAL INSTRUCTIONS

What is this form?

To help the government fight financial crime, Federal regulation requires certain financial institutions to obtain, verify, and record information about the beneficial owners of legal entity customers. Legal entities can be abused to disguise involvement in terrorist financing, money laundering, tax evasion, corruption, fraud, and other financial crimes. Requiring the disclosure of key individuals who own or control a legal entity (i.e., the beneficial owners) helps law enforcement investigate and prosecute these crimes.

Who has to complete this form?

This form must be completed by the person opening a new account on behalf of a legal entity with any of the following U.S. financial institutions: (i) a bank or credit union; (ii) a broker or dealer in securities; (iii) a mutual fund; (iv) a futures commission merchant; or (v) an introducing broker in commodities.

For the purposes of this form, a legal entity includes a corporation, limited liability company, or other entity that is created by a filing of a public document with a Secretary of State or similar office, a general partnership, and any similar business entity formed in the United States or a foreign country. Legal entity does not include sole proprietorships, unincorporated associations, or natural persons opening accounts on their own behalf.

What information do I have to provide?

This form requires you to provide the name, address, date of birth and Social Security number (or passport number or other similar information, in the case of foreign persons) for the following individuals (i.e., the beneficial owners):

- (i) Each individual, if any, who owns, directly or indirectly, 25 percent or more of the equity interests of the legal entity customer (e.g., each natural person that owns 25 percent or more of the shares of a corporation); and
- (ii) An individual with significant responsibility for managing the legal entity customer (e.g., a Chief Executive Officer, Chief Financial Officer, Chief Operating Officer, Managing Member, General Partner, President, Vice President, or Treasurer).

The number of individuals that satisfy this definition of "beneficial owner" may vary. Under section (i), depending on the factual circumstances, up to four individuals (but as few as zero) may need to be identified. Regardless of the number of individuals identified under section (i), you must provide the identifying information of one individual under section (ii). It is possible that in some circumstances the same individual might be identified under both sections (e.g., the President of Acme, Inc. who also holds a 30 percent equity interest). Thus, a completed form will contain the identifying information of at least one individual (under section (ii)), and up to five individuals (i.e., one individual under section (ii) and four 25 percent equity holders under section (i)). The financial institution may also ask to see a copy of a driver's license or other identifying document for each beneficial owner listed on this form.

II. CERTIFICATION OF BENEFICIAL OWNER(S)

Persons opening an account on behalf of a legal entity must provide the following information:

a. Name and Title of Natural Person Opening/Operating the Account:

DISCLOSURE REGARDING ORDER IN WHICH CHECKS WILL BE PAID

We have adopted a policy on disclosure regarding the order in which the checks received for payment from your checking account shall be paid. Provisions of the policy are stated in brief below for your information and record.

When more than one check and Automated Clearing House (ACH) debit is received for payment on a particular day, they will be paid in the following order, subject to availability of credit balance in the account:

- i) The debits received through ACH shall be paid first and thereafter the checks would be paid. In case more than one ACH debit is received, the ACH debit bearing an earlier date shall be paid first. If all the ACH debits bear the same date, they will be paid in the order of increasing amounts – beginning with the debit bearing the smallest amount.
- ii) Checks will be paid in the order of the date they are issued i.e. check issued on the earliest date will be paid first and so on.
- iii) In case, more than one check with same date of issue is received, the check with the smallest amount will be paid first and then in the sequence of increasing amounts.
- iv) In case, more than one check of same date and same amount is received, then the checks will be paid in order of check number i.e. check with the lowest check number will be paid first and then in the sequence of increasing check numbers.
- v) Notwithstanding what is stated above, if a depositor requests for payment of a particular check or checks on priority basis, in writing, sufficiently in advance, Bank will pay such checks first and then pay other checks in the order as stated above.

Checks which cannot be paid as above, due to non-availability of credit balance in the account will be returned.

Substitute Checks and Electronic Files Pertaining to Original Checks

If you deposit a "substitute check" (as defined in Regulation CC Section 229.2 (aaa)) or a purported substitute check into your Account, you agree to reimburse us for losses, costs and expenses we may pay or incur associated with the item not meeting applicable substitute check standards and/or from duplicate payments associated with the item. If you provide us with an electronic representation of a substitute check for deposit into your account instead of an original check, you agree to reimburse us for losses, costs and expenses we may pay or incur associated with the substitute check resulting from the electronic representation not meeting applicable substitute check standards and/or from duplicate payments associated with the item.

Substitute Checks and Your Rights

What is a substitute check?

To make check processing faster, federal law permits banks to replace original checks with "substitute checks." These checks are similar in size to original checks with a slightly reduced image of the front and back of the original check. The front of a substitute check states: "This is a legal copy of your check. You can use it the same way you would use the original check." You may use a substitute check as proof of payment just like the original check.

Some or all of the checks that you receive back from us may be substitute checks. This notice describes rights you have when you receive substitute checks from us. The rights in this notice do not apply to original checks or to electronic debits to your account. However, you have rights under other law with respect to those transactions.

What are your rights regarding substitute checks?

In certain cases, federal law provides a special procedure that allows you to request a refund for losses you suffer if a substitute check is posted to your account (for example, if you think that we withdrew the wrong amount from your account or that we withdrew money from your account more than once for the same check). The losses you may attempt to recover under this procedure may include the amount that was withdrawn from your account and fees that were charged as a result of the withdrawal (for example, bounced check fees).

The amount of your refund under this procedure is limited to the amount of your loss or the amount of the substitute check, whichever is less. You also are entitled to interest on the amount of your refund if your account is an interest-bearing account. If your loss exceeds the amount of the substitute check, you may be able to recover additional amounts under other law.

If you use this procedure, you may receive up to (amount, not lower than $2,500) of your refund (plus interest if your account earns interest) within (number of days, not more than 10) business days after we received your claim and the remainder of your refund (plus interest if your account earns interest) not later than (number of days, not more than 45) calendar days after we received your claim.

We may reverse the refund (including any interest on the refund) if we later are able to demonstrate that the substitute check was correctly posted to your account.

How do you make a claim for a refund?

If you believe that you have suffered a loss relating to a substitute check that you received and that was posted to your account, please contact us at: Bank of India New York Branch, 277 Park Avenue, New York, NY 10172, Tel. No. (212) 753-6100 or e-mail at boi.ny@bankofindia.co.in You must contact us within 60 calendar days of the date that we mailed (or otherwise delivered by a means to which you agreed) the substitute check in question or the account statement showing that the substitute check was posted to your account, whichever is later. We will extend this time period if you were not able to make a timely claim because of extraordinary circumstances.

Your claim must include-

- A description of why you have suffered a loss (for example, you think the amount withdrawn was incorrect);
- An estimate of the amount of your loss;
- An explanation of why the substitute check you received is insufficient to confirm that you suffered a loss; and
- A copy of the substitute check [and/or] the following information to help us identify the substitute check: (identifying information, for example the check number, the name of the person to whom you wrote the check, the amount of the check).

NOTICE REGARDING ACH TRANSACTIONS

- i. The entry may be transmitted through the ACH;
- ii. Credit given by us to you with respect to an ACH credit entry is provisional until we receive final settlement for such entry through a Federal Reserve Bank. If we do not receive such final settlement, you are hereby notified and agree that we are entitled to a refund of the amount credited to you in connection with such entry, and the party making payment to you via such entry (i.e. the originator of the entry) shall not be deemed to have paid you in the amount of such entry;
- iii. Under the operating rules of the National Automated Clearing House Association, which are applicable to ACH transactions involving your account, we are not required to give next day notice to you of receipt of an ACH item and we will not do so. However, we will continue to notify you of the receipt of payments in the periodic statement we provide to you;
- iv. we may accept on your behalf payments to your account which have been transmitted through one or more Automated Clearing Houses (ACH) and which are not subject to the Electronic Fund Transfer Act and your rights and obligations with respect to such payments shall be construed in accordance with and governed by the laws of the state of New York as provided by the operating rules of the National Automated Clearing House Association, which are applicable to ACH transactions involving your account.”

In case of error in any ACH (Automated Clearing House) debit or credit, we must be notified within 60 calendar days from the date of the statement reflecting the error. In case of oral notice, a written confirmation should be received within 10 business days, but we will not delay the investigation.

Notice must contain:

- Complete information so we can identify your name, account number and the specific transaction.
- It should state that you believe an error has occurred and the reasons why you believe so.

If you notify us within 60 calendar days, we will investigate within 10 business days. We will extend this time period if you were not able to make a timely claim because of extraordinary circumstances. However, Investigation may extend to 45 calendar days (in total) but during this time, we will:

- Provisionally credit your account with the amount in error (with interest) within 10 business days;
- Notify you of this credit within 2 business days;
- Give you full use of this credit during our investigation.

Results of Investigation:

If no error has occurred:

- We will mail / deliver written explanation within 3 business days of concluding the investigation.

FUNDS AVAILABILITY POLICY

Conditions and Disclosures

When will your funds be available for withdrawal?

At Bank of India we want you to understand when your deposited funds will become available. This will help you manage your money easily and avoid the inconvenience of a returned check or a dishonored withdrawal request.

Our policy is to make funds you deposit into your BOI account(s) available for withdrawal based upon the type of deposit or check.

A withdrawal shall be deemed to be made when recorded on the books of the account holder's banking institution.

You can use the chart given below to know when your deposit will be available. To do so you must first answer these questions:

What is the day of deposit?

For determining the availability of your deposits, every day is a business day except Saturdays, Sundays and Federal holidays. If you make a deposit before 3.00 p.m. on a business day, we will consider that day to be the day of your deposit. If you make a deposit after that time, we will consider that the deposit was made on the next business day that we open.

What is the type of deposit?

The delay in availability of funds depends on the type of deposit you make (such as a check drawn on BOI, a check drawn on another bank or cashier's check).

DEPOSIT TYPE	WHEN WILL THE FUNDS BE AVAILABLE	WHEN WILL THE FUNDS BE AVAILABLE IF THE DAY OF DEPOSIT IS A MONDAY*
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Cash</li> <li>• Checks drawn on BOI</li> <li>• Electronic Deposits</li> <li>• U.S. Treasury Checks</li> <li>• U.S. Postal Money Orders</li> <li>• Max Deposit USD 1000.00</li> <li>• Max International $700.00</li> <li>• Other Government Checks issued by a state or a general purpose unit of government</li> <li>• Federal Reserve Bank or Federal Home Loan Bank Checks</li> <li>• Cashier's and Teller's (Official), Certified, Traveler's, NY State and Local Government checks payable to you and presented for deposit on a separate deposit ticket.</li> </ul>	On the 1st business day after the day of deposit	Tuesday
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Local checks</li> </ul>	USD 275.00 of the amount  On the 1st business day after the day of deposit                      (to pay the checks written to others) Rest of the amount  On the 2nd business day after the day of deposit	Tuesday Wednesday

* Assuming no intervening holidays.

** The deposit must be presented along with a separate deposit ticket on which the type of check is clearly mentioned (i.e. Certified, Official, Travelers or Government)

In addition to the above

The funds you deposit by check may be delayed for a longer period under the following circumstances:

- We believe a check you deposit will not be paid.
- You deposit checks totaling more than $6,725.00 on any one day.

For customers that have multiple accounts at a depository bank, the bank may apply this exception to the aggregate deposits to all accounts held by the customer, even if the customer is not the sole holder of the accounts and not all of the holders of the accounts are the same.

- You redeposit a check that has been returned unpaid.
- You have overdrawn your account repeatedly in the last six months.
- There is an emergency, such as a failure of computer or communication equipment.
- The bank reserves the right to delay the availability of funds deposited to accounts that are not transaction accounts for periods longer than those disclosed in this policy.

We will notify you if we delay your ability to withdraw funds for any of these reasons, and we will tell you when the funds will be available. However, full availability of funds will be no later than the Seventh business day after the day of your deposit except for the Emergency conditions where the funds must be made available for withdrawal no later than a reasonable period after the emergency has ceased.

If you need the funds from a deposit right away, you may specifically ask us.

Special Rules for New Accounts:

- 1) An account is considered a new account during the first 30 calendar days after the account is established.
- 2) Generally, funds you deposit will be available within one business day except when you deposit checks exceeding $6,725.00 effective in a business day. The amount exceeding $6,725.00 effective will be available not later than ninth business day after the day of your deposit.

LIABILITY FOR ILLEGIBLE ENDORSEMENT

There is a special area on the back of all checks that you should avoid writing or printing in since that area is reserved for endorsement by the bank at which the check is deposited. It is our policy that by depositing, collecting or cashing any check with us, you will be responsible for any losses we incur from the depositing bank's endorsement being obscured by your endorsement or other markings, or the endorsement or markings of any prior party.

Accordingly, it is our policy that by depositing, collecting or cashing any check, draft or other instrument, or by issuing a check drawn on your account with us, you will be responsible for any damages, losses or liabilities we incur (such as those arising from any misrouting or other delay in the return of a check), to the extent the depository bank's endorsement is obscured or otherwise impaired by:

1. Preprinting, carbon bands or the like, on the back of checks which you have issued on your account with us (including that which directs or causes a subsequent party to endorse in the area reserved for the depository bank, or by
2. Your endorsement or other markings, or the endorsement or markings of any prior party, on a check which you have cashed, collected or deposited with us.

This notice does not affect BOI's right, under existing law, to charge your account, or otherwise obtain a refund from you, for any deposited check that is not finally paid, regardless of the reason for nonpayment.

We may amend or revise our policy from time to time, as permitted or required by Federal Law.

Treatment of checks deposited with two endorsements

In compliance with Section 9-p of the New York State Banking Law, the Branch will not refuse to accept "as a deposit" made with a teller by an "account holder" at Bank of India for the sole reason that it contains two endorsements. The customer will be required to deposit check into his/her account and the check will be subject to the funds availability retention schedule.
